Based Upon Romans 1:16-3:26

Designed to Assist You

In Your Ambassadorship For Christ

40 pages • 5.5”x8.5” • Softcover • Saddle-Stitch/Staple Binding

There are 7 major volition testing points contained within “the gospel of Christ.” They are progressively encountered one after the other as one proceeds through the gospel from Romans 1:16 to 3:26. The points begin with the testing of a person’s volition regarding the basic light of God Consciousness, and proceed on until the volition is confronted with the truth of “the redemption which is in Christ Jesus” and the issue of believing in the Lord Jesus Christ as one’s all-sufficient Savior for justification in God’s sight.

This booklet was written to assist in using our 20 Gospel Tracts, explaining the 7 major volition testing points. Even though our 20 Gospel Tracts are no longer in print, this booklet is a great introduction to the 7 volition testing points.

● Properly Handling The Word of Truth

12 Basic Lessons to Ensure You Handle The Bible as God Intends

496 pages • 12 Lessons • 7”x10” • Softcover • Perfect Binding

By purposefully using the modern expression ‘properly handling the word of truth’ for the book’s title, the lessons also make it sufficiently evident that ‘properly handling the word of truth’ can only mean to be “rightly dividing the word of truth,” exactly as the King James Version says.

Based upon our Basic Bible Comprehension video series, the 12 lessons in Properly Handling The Word of Truth follow the teaching format of the video series. In essence it is our Basic Bible Comprehension video series in book form.

Properly Handling The Word of Truth is a large format, (or textbook size), book. Its 7x10 inch format and 496 pages contain 12 lessons followed by 12 appendices, including numerous charts that are strategically located within the text of the lessons. Written in a personal ‘talking-to-you’ style and with its many helpful charts, it is easy-to-read and follow. Bound with a ‘lay-flat’ binding, it readily lays open while reading.

In view of the vital and ongoing need that there is for Christians to be confronted with their need to be “rightly dividing the word of truth,” we appreciate the publication of any literature, (or any form of teaching) that does this. Likewise we appreciate other efforts that appeal to saints to honestly verify the soundness of the doctrines that they profess, or that they live by, or to which they give heed.

Wherefore we hope that this publication will function as such and will contribute to this overall effort, and that in so doing you may find it to be a useful tool as you seek to help other Christians see the need for “rightly dividing the word of truth.” ISBN 978-1-930863-10-1

Studying The Bible
 (2-fold; 8 panel; 8.5" x 3.5")

The chart on the inside of this tract illustrates the RIGHT DIVISION of God's word.

As we study the Bible, if we want to understand not only what it says in general, but in particular what it says to us today, it makes sense to do what God tells us to do when it comes to properly handling His word.

“A Perversion of the Gospel...”

4 Titles

(2-fold; 8 panel; 8.5" x 3.5")

Unfortunately there are a number of erroneous Gospel clichés. And as such they actually pervert “the gospel of Christ” by misstating God’s requirement for being justified in His sight. In view of the importance of the clarity of the gospel in the face of these perversions. This tract examines one of four Gospel clichés. For a fuller examination of this matter, see the author’s booklet, “The Gospel of God’s Grace: Make It Clear! Make It Plain!,” from which these articles are taken.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE EXCELLENCY OF OLDER ENGLISH

The English language is one of the most expressive languages on earth. Its vocabulary is very rich, as is its capacity to make highly meaningful use of its vocabulary through varied structure and style. Though this is still true today, it was unparalleled in the 'Golden Age' of English, during which time the King James Bible was brought forth.

This series of studies provides a basic introduction to the excellency of older English by looking at examples of such excellency in 3 particular areas: • Section 1- Vocabulary • Section 2- Structure & Style • Section 3- Miscellaneous Matters 12 hour study

JUSTIFICATION & SALVATION

Or, The Thief on the Cross: Is he an exception to the rule?

“Justification” and “Salvation” — two terms with which we should be very familiar. However there is more than one kind of justification in the Bible, and more than one kind of salvation as well. Justification unto eternal life and/or salvation from the debt and penalty of one’s sin is not always the issue to which these words refer.

This 12 hour study looks at the different kinds of justification and salvation that there are in the Bible, and in so doing deals with some problems that occur when the differences are not recognized. 12 hour study

Statement of Faith

Statement of Faith

THE BIBLE - The Bible is the word of God. “Given by inspiration of God” it is not the product of human imagination or creativity. (II Timothy 3:16)

GOD - The Godhead eternally exists in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ is God manifest in the flesh; the image of the invisible God. (John 1:1-18)

SIN - All men are sinners by nature and are unable to save themselves from the debt and penalty of their sins by anything they can do. (Romans 1:18-3:20)

SALVATION - God, out of His great love for us, has provided complete redemption through Christ’s death, burial, and resurrection in our place. He offers to justify anyone freely by His grace through faith in Christ as one’s all-sufficient Savior. (Romans 3:21-26) Faith in Christ is the issue of trusting exclusively in His redemptive work on the cross for one’s acceptance with God and not in any of one’s own works of any kind. This act of faith is the decision of one’s own will in response to the gospel of Christ. The purpose of God in election declares that it is the plan of God to provide salvation for all men, but in accordance with men’s own free will, to save those that believe.

ETERNAL SECURITY - Eternally secure salvation is the possession of all who trust the Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior. (Romans 5:1-21)

JUDGMENT - Everlasting punishment is the lot of all those who know not God and obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. (II Thessalonians 1:7-9)

THE UNIQUE APOSTLESHIP OF PAUL - The present dispensation of the grace of God was a “mystery,” not made known before, but God kept it hid in Himself until He raised up the apostle Paul. To Paul God committed the revelation of “the mystery of Christ.” Until God raised up Paul, His program and dealings with Israel were in effect. (Romans 16:25-27; Ephesians 2:11-3:12; Colossians 1:24-27)

THE CHURCH, THE BODY OF CHRIST - The church the body of Christ being formed in this dispensation of grace is distinct from the nation of Israel and God’s program with them. The church is not the subject of prophecy nor the fulfiller of Israel’s promises and covenants. (Romans 11:1-36)

THE RAPTURE - This dispensation of grace will end with the rapture of the body of Christ. It will be followed by the resumption of God's program and dealings with Israel, including the Lord's day of wrath and the kingdom reign of Christ on this earth. (I Thessalonians 4:13-5:10; II Thessalonians 2:1-17)

SPIRITUAL GIFTS - In accordance with Paul's teaching in I Corinthians 12-14, the temporary need for spiritual gifts that existed at the beginning of this dispensation has been superseded by the completion of the written word of God. The "perfect" written word of God now having come, spiritual gifts have been "done away."

BAPTISM - Of all the different kinds of baptisms spoken about in the Bible, only one is of any importance to God, or has any application, in this present dispensation of His grace. That baptism is the one God Himself performs when the Spirit of God baptizes the believer "into Jesus Christ" at the moment of salvation, so identifying the believer with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection.

Water baptisms in particular are "rudiments of the world" that functioned in accordance with the elementary purification, separation, and identification teachings of the Law Covenant, and as such were a natural part of God's program and dealings with Israel. As described in I Corinthians 1, at the beginning of this dispensation of grace in connection with testifying to Israel outside of their land, the Apostle Paul used water baptisms on certain occasions as a sign to unbelieving Israel. With the exception of this limited use, water baptisms have no role or function in this present dispensation of grace. (I Cor. 12:13, Eph. 4:4-6)

THE KING JAMES BIBLE - The preserved inerrant word of God has always existed, still exists, and is identified today as the received text of the historic protestant reformation process. The translation of the received text into the English language has produced the inerrant, infallible word of God in English. Though a multitude of English Bible translations exist at the present time, only the King James Version is translated from the received text. The King James Version is identified as the inerrant, infallible, preserved word of God in the English language.
